WILLIAM D. WEISENBURGER

listed his employment as President, Consultants International, Inc., Suite 1015, 1425 K Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., and President, International Maritime Investments, Inc., Suite 502, 100 Indiana Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C. (S) (U)

GERHARD E. G. BAUCH
POSSIBLE FRAUD BY WIRE
WFO File Number 87-21395
Status: Closed

On February 14, 1975, Wilson identified Bauch as being an employee of his for approximately two years and acts as a Consultants International representative to various countries, including Haiti. Wilson complained that Bauch skimmed approximately $8,000 off the total sale price of M-1 rifles by International Armament Corporation, Alexandria, Virginia, to the Government of Haiti. Bureau investigation determined the transaction to be legal and no criminal violation existed. The recovery of the $8,000 obtained by Bauch was determined to be a civil matter between Wilson and Bauch.

On November 24, 1975, the Naval Investigative Service (NIS) advised [redacted]

[redacted] had been approached by Wilson and assured that [redacted] would be the successful bidder for the renewal of a $3.5 million United States Marine Corps (USMC) contract in return for a retainer fee of $1,500 plus five percent of the gross value of the contract. Wilson indicated he had an active duty USMC officer on the inside who could influence awarding of USMC contracts.

b6 - per FBI
b7C - per FBI

[redacted] turned down Wilson's offer even after Wilson reduced his retainer fee to as low as $100. FBI investigation determined the USMC contract to be [redacted]. However, [redacted] is not in a position to influence USMC contracts and the Assistant United States Attorney, Washington, D. C., declined prosecution of Wilson and [redacted] in above matter.
